KEY ELEMENTS

Key elements of the style include a desire to stand out from the crowd and so you select bold colours, high contrasts, angular and sharp design details and oversized accessories. Comfort is not important - it's the look that counts. It's likely that the saying "beauty is pain" was first said by someone with a Dramatic personality style.

You'll look for fabrics that draw attention - from high shine to feather, leather and fur. The fit is always well-fitted and the look is sharp.

DRAMATIC ACCESSORIES

Your accessories are large scale and noticeable.

Big and bold is your mantra, super high-heeled shoes in bright colours, with pointed toes and stiletto heels.

Handbags make a statement and are oversized, maybe patterned or a jewel colour, made from leather in top handle styles.

GROOMING

Your grooming is sharp and noticeable. You may have brightly coloured hair, very short or cut in a super angular way, always with product to make it sit just how you like it. Messy is never your thing.

Bold lip colours and a smoky eye are also common, you are not likely to leave the house without a full face of makeup on.

You'd always rather be overdressed than underdressed.
